Clerks

Fawkham has had some long serving Clerks over the years:

Mr A C Williams, was the first Clerk, appointed in April 1935 at a salary of £3 per annum. He remained as Clerk until October 1939, when he moved away.

Miss Eileen Bignold is the longest serving Clerk: she was appointed in March 1940 and remained until May 1973 - a total of 33 years. In 1959 the Clerk's salary was raised to £15, and to £20 in 1966. Miss Bignold founded and was Headteacher at Steephill School. After her death in 1989, silver birch trees were planted in her memory in the churchyard close to the pond.

Mrs Linda Lewis-Ranwell June 1973 - April 1978. Appointed at a salary of £130.

Mrs MJ Hobbs April 1978 - October 1979

Mrs Sheena Moss October 1979 -1987. Sheena is the third longest serving Clerk, and still lives in the village.

Mrs S M Oakes January 1988 - March 1989, when she moved away.

Linda Parlett April 1989 - 2012. Linda was clerk for 23 years, making her the second longest-serving, before taking well-earned retirement.
